

CIA ivillage

U.S. court dismisses Heine slander suit

WASHINGTON (CP) — A U.S. federal judge yesterday dismissed the $100,000 slander suit filed by international Communist front John Heine against a self-styled expert of the Communist Party, U.S.A.

Judge Robert Tamm, in a written opinion filed in federal court, said a "total" could not prove the "guilt" of the truth or falsity of the charge.

The article in the New York Times, dated May 10, 1954, was titled "Heine, 47, Sues for $100,000 for Slander." It stated that Heine, a self-styled expert on the CIA, had been accused of being a Communist agent.

The article also stated that Heine had been accused of being a Communist agent, and that he had been accused of being a Communist agent.

resident of Toronto, said he immediately will appeal to the U.S. Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals, sitting in New York City.

Heine, 47, who lives in New York City, was accused of being a Communist agent, and of being a Communist agent.

The article also stated that Heine had been accused of being a Communist agent, and that he had been accused of being a Communist agent.

The article also stated that Heine had been accused of being a Communist agent, and that he had been accused of being a Communist agent.

The article also stated that Heine had been accused of being a Communist agent, and that he had been accused of being a Communist agent.

The article also stated that Heine had been accused of being a Communist agent, and that he had been accused of being a Communist agent.

The article also stated that Heine had been accused of being a Communist agent, and that he had been accused of being a Communist agent.

The article also stated that Heine had been accused of being a Communist agent, and that he had been accused of being a Communist agent.

The article also stated that Heine had been accused of being a Communist agent, and that he had been accused of being a Communist agent.

give Heine his name with name 9 Dec 61

700 file